KOFFEE WITH KALRA

COMPILED BY CA R.S.KALRA

ABOUT THE CREATOR

The personality behind this book, who dreamt to make people happy by pulling them out of present stressful life, is none else but CA Ravinder Singh Kalra. Not even remotely connected to his profession, still, he is living his dream to make people stress-free in the present day life style of choked atmosphere all around. In today's business environment with commercialization to the extreme, people have simply forgot, how to laugh and smile. Present book in your hand is his one more successful effort by this resolute personality to live his dream to see and spread smile on the faces of more and more people around, irrespective of whether connected to him or not.

Born in Jalandhar (Punjab) in 1962, CA R S Kalra graduated in Commerce from D A V College, Jalandhar. Did his masters in Commerce from Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla. He has to his credit professional degrees of Chartered Accountancy as well as Bachelors of Law.

Seeing the topics and matters touched in present book, it seems unbelievable, but it is true that he has been a very successful professional and achieved many a milestones in his own field as well. He has throughout his career, awakened the masses on taxation matters by writing articles in various leading newspapers and journals.

Climbing the ladder at a steady pace to achieve the ever increasing heights, he has been at the helm of professional affairs at all levels, which include (but not limited to) amongst others- Vice- Chairman of Jalandhar Branch of NIRC of ICAI, Chairman of Jalandhar Branch of NIRC of ICAI, Member Regional Direct Tax Advisory Committee of CBDT, New Delhi, Member Direct Tax Committee of ICAI, Special Invitee Direct Tax Committee of ICAI, Member of Indirect Tax Committee, Special Invitee Board of Studies of ICAI, Senate Member of Guru Nanak Dev University.

*TESTIMONIALS FOR STEPS TO

---

Your collection- Steps to smiles, makes a wonderful reading. Great effort. Very thoughtful of you to share it on-line.

Grateful thanks and regards,

-Anil Agrawal

It's really a wonderful book.

Lot of inspirational quotes really motivate us.

& also good collection of jokes makes us smile.

-Manish Dua

I am yet to see such a voluminous compilation of quotes and jokes together. I am separately complementing Shri Kalra directly and express my special thanks to you for presenting me with such a novel creation through mail.

Normally I avoid going through such long mails, but this was irresistible.

-Mr. Watwani

Dear Shri R.S Kalra ji I am really finding myself utterly helpless in holding myself to convey to you that your novel compilation, sent to me through e mail by a valued friend, has left me dumb struck as to how a man in profession could compile so much extra-curricular stuff and feed it in one go. I wish to congratulate you from the depth of my heart for such herculean task. Incidentally, we have certain things in common too. I too am a M.Com., LL.B, & FICWA but was born in year 1943. I find your compilation of quotes and jokes together really hilarious and while I normally avoid sifting very long e mails, this was irresistible. Best wishes for everybody in your family.

-Ravidev Gupta.

Koffee with Kalra

It was a Sunny Saturday Afternoon, I had lunch and was sitting in office post lunch, my office is in basement, sun managed to make its way through the window down below the earth, my phone rang and it was my dear friend Ashwani Randeve he called me to ask me come upstairs outside the office as we were headed towards a coffee meet with our other friends, I sat in the white colored Nissan sunny car and light music of Mohammad Rafi was coming out of the system, we had just a usual conversation about the work routine and we have to leave it at loose end since we almost reached our destination, it was name CCD Lounge I pushed the door Randeve locked the Car and followed me, my eyes hunted and then I realized on a round table our other friends Dinesh Sarna, Ashwani Jindal, Ashwani Gupta were already waiting and we both joined them and then after a gap of approximately 5 minutes Manoj Soni and came we all sat down coffee aroma was all over the lounge, since it was a afternoon time no other table was occupied however in outs were going on, the ambience was soothing, we had push and pull conversations, oh let me explain you why I name this as push and pull, push is the motivation we give to others and pull is the inspiration we draw from others their lives, their inspiring stories and I personally believe you can motivate others only if you are inspired, that fine day a hot shot of coffee gave me an idea and while heading back to our home in the car with Randeva I said each one of us so much that we had believed in our lives, the inspiration we took on daily basis from our elders, Guru's, books, family, I think we should share it with the world at large, Randeva nodded in Consensus, he dropped me home, I went to my office and shared the thoughts with my daughter she said since I had this idea over a cup of coffee let us dedicate your works of compilation as Koffee with Kalra, I was persistent, No No, people might expect that this had to do something with the Bollywood but she was persistent and convinced me somehow that we will name it as Koffee with Kalra, and this is how Koffee with Kalra came into existence.

This book offers you that life is like a door, if it's written "Pull" please do not "Push" and it provides words of wisdom for betterment of life. Push means motivation and Pull means inspiration. The matter in this book in the form of push and pulls are a manual on life. This book represents Motivation and Inspiration as the two pillars of Success. Each article is based on simple and ordinary experiences with a special aroma. They take you a step closer to a better life. Each offers stimulation for growth and inspired living Man was created and designed to create and design his own life. By the very process of creation and then through parents, teachers and society – substantial investment has been made in the making of a man.

Consequently, each of us has a moral responsibility to live life worthy of our potential and this book provides the tools and technology.

Thoughts constitute the mind and the mind constitutes the content of the being. The mind of each man is the man himself. I can change myself, if and only if, I change what change goes into my mind. Our thoughts shape our action. If we shape our thoughts, we will shape our destiny.

We don't live in bungalows, duplexes or flats. We live in our minds. Yes, that's our permanent residence.

And there are no constraints of square-feet there. It's a vast space with unlimited area. And you know what! No matter how well-organized your rooms, balconies, garages and verandas are, life is good only when things are sorted there – in your mind.

And that's where we keep things messy – regrets piling up in one corner, expectations
stuffed in a closet, secrets under the carpet, worries littered everywhere, comparisons
spilt on the table, complexes leaking from an old bottle, and grudges stinking in a box.

Be aware. For this 'real home' of yours,
you can't outsource housekeeping.
You have got to do it yourself.

- If the first button of a shirt is wrongly put, all the rest are surely crooked. So always be careful on your first step.
- It is not important how much you value a person, but important is that how long you value that person with same feelings.
- Don't be disappointed when nobody stands with you. CHANAKYA rightly said: "I am thankful to those who left me, because they taught me "I CAN DO IT ALONE" Trust yourself...

Father- Beta pee lene de, saath mein kuch nahi jayega.
Son- Jis tarah tum pee rahe ho, chhod ke bhi kuch nahi jaoge!

- Courtesy says you must never ask a woman her age and Man his salary" Do you know why? Have you ever thought about it? Well, here is a beautiful insight... It is wrong to ask a woman her age because she hardly ever lives for herself. And it is wrong to ask a man his salary because he hardly ever spends on himself.
- Anyone who stops learning is old, whether at twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps learning stays young. The greatest thing in life is to keep your mind young.

Political Crooks

A small boy parks his bicycle near Parliament House and walks on. A Police Constable stops him and asks, "Why did you park your bicycle here? Don't you know about this road? Many MPs sometimes CMs, even the cabinet ministers and politicians pass from here. The boy replied, "Don't worry, I have locked my bicycle."

SELFISH MANAGERS

A highly successful Manager was going home in his car when he saw two men along the roadside eating grass. Disturbed by the sight, he ordered his driver to stop and got out to investigate.

He asked one man

"Why are you eating grass?"

"We don't have any money for food," the poor man replied. "We have to eat grass."

"Well, then, you can come with me to my house and I'll feed you" the manager said.

"But sir, I have a wife and five children with me. They are over there, under that tree".

"Bring them along," the manager replied.

Turning to the other poor man he stated, "You come with us also."

The second man, in a pitiful voice then said, "But sir, I also have a wife and seven children with me!"

"Bring them all, as well," the manager answered.

They all entered the car, which was no easy task, even for a car as large as it was.

One of the poor fellows turned to the Manager and said, "Sir, you are too kind. Thank you for taking all of us with you." The manager replied, "Glad to do it. You'll really love my place; the grass is almost 1 meter high!"

Lesson: Never trust Managers ... They will go to any extreme to finish their job.

And there is none like a KIND MANAGER

Dedicated to all successful managers and upcoming managers.....

- Happiness comes with a price tag. If you are smiling, you've already paid for it in past.
- The future has several names. For the weak, it is impossible; for the fainthearted, it is unknown; for the thoughtful and valiant, it is ideal.

When a top most CA died, he went to heaven". He stood in a long queue. As soon as God spotted him (the CA was standing 740th in the line) God got up and rushed to him. He took the CA to the front, and made him sit in a comfortable sofa.

The CA said, "God, this is good. But why am I special?" God replied, "I added up all the hours for which you billed your clients, and by my calculator says you are 213 years old".

Inspiring Lost Watch Story

A young man saw his primary school teacher on a wedding.

He went to greet him with all the respect and admiration.

He said to him:

"Do you remember me, Teacher?"

The teacher said: "No, please introduce yourself."

The student said: "I was your student in the 3rd Grade, I am the one who stole the watch of a child in the classroom. I will remind you but I am sure you remember the story."

One of the boys in my class had a beautiful watch, so I decided to steal it.

He came to you crying that someone had stolen his watch.

You asked us to stand so as to search our pockets.

I realized that my action would be exposed in front of the Students and Teachers.

I will be called a thief, a liar and my character will be shattered forever.

You asked us to stand and face the wall and close our eyes completely.

You went searching from pocket to pocket, and when you reached my pocket you pulled the watch out of my pocket, and you continued until you searched the last student.

After you finished you asked us to open our eyes and to sit on our chairs.

I was afraid you will expose me in front of the students.

You showed the watch to the class, and gave it back to the boy, and you never mentioned the name of the one who stole the watch. You never said a word to me, and you never mentioned the story to anyone. Throughout my school life, none of the teachers nor the students talked about me stealing the watch. I thought to myself you saved my dignity that day. The teacher said: "I can't remember who stole the watch that day, because I searched the pockets of all of you while my eyes were also closed." Education needs wisdom. As Teachers, Parents, Leaders, we should be able to understand the consequences of our actions. Protecting and reforming is tougher than exposing and expelling

STORY

This story is about a person working with a freezer plant. It was almost the day end. Everyone had packed up to check out. A technical snag developed in the plant and he went to check. By the time he finished it was late. The doors were sealed and the lights were off. Trapped inside the ice plant whole night without air and light, an icy grave was almost sure for him. Hours passed thus. Suddenly he found someone opening the door. Was it a miracle?

The security guard entered there with a torch light and helped him to come out. On the way back the person asked the security guard, "How did you know that I am inside?" "Who informed you?" the guard said, "None sir; this unit has about 50 people. But you are the only one who says Hello to me in the morning and bye in the evening. You had reported in morning, but did not go out. That made me suspicious. Never did the person know that a small gesture of greeting someone would prove to be a lifesaver for him. So do us. Remember to greet when you meet someone, of course with a warm smile.

We don't know; that may work a miracle in your life too....

A large notice in a shop window announced a big sale, with sweeping reductions, starting at 9 a.m. An enormous queue had started to form by 7:30 a.m.

Just before the shop was due to open, an inconspicuous little man walked to the head of the queue. Angry women elbowed and pushed him until he was right at the back of the line. Undaunted, the little man went to the head of the queue again. Once more, he was shoved unceremoniously to the back, this time with a few smacks on the face and a couple of thumps from umbrella wielded by angry women. The little man walked to one side of the queue and said: "If that's your attitude, I won't open the shop at all today!"

One night President Obama and his wife Michelle decided to do something out of routine and go for a casual dinner at a restaurant that wasn't too luxurious. When they were seated, the owner of the restaurant asked the President's secret service if he could please speak to the First Lady in private. They obliged and Michelle had a conversation with the owner.

Following this conversation, President Obama asked Michelle, "Why was he so interested in talking to you?" She mentioned that in her teenage years, he was madly in love with her.

President Obama then said, "So if you had married him, you would now be the owner of this lovely restaurant?" Michelle responded, "No, if I had married him, he would now be the President of US."..

I read a book on marriage and it said, "You should treat your wife as you treated her on your 1st date".
So I took her to dinner at a restaurant and then I dropped her at her parents' house!

STORY

A son took his old father to a restaurant for an evening dinner .Father being very old and weak, while eating dropped food on his shirt and trousers. Others diners watched him in disgust while his son was calm.

After he finished eating, his son who was not at all embarrassed, quietly took him to the wash room, wiped the food particles, removed the stains, combed his hair and fitted his spectacles firmly. When they came out, the entire restaurant was watching them in dead silence, not able to grasp how someone could embarrass themselves publicly like that.

The son settled the bill and started walking out with his father.

At that time, an old man amongst the diners called out to the son and asked him, "Don't you think you have left something behind?"

The son replied, "No sir, I haven't"

The old man retorted, "Yes, you have! You left a lesson for every son and hope for every father".

The restaurant went silent.

A very old lion lay ill in his cave. All of the animals came to pay their respects to their king except for the fox.

The wolf, sensing an opportunity, accused the fox in front of the lion: "The fox has no respect for you or your rule. That's why he hasn't even come to visit you."

Just as the wolf was saying this, the fox arrived, and he overheard these words. Then the lion roared in rage at him, but the fox managed to say in his own defense: " Me lord , of all those who have gathered here, who has rendered Your Majesty as much service as I have done? For I have travelled far and wide asking physicians for a remedy for your illness, and I have found one."

The lion demanded to know at once what cure he had found, and the fox said: "It is necessary for you to flay a wolf alive, and then take his skin and wrap it around you while it is still warm."

The wolf was ordered to be taken away immediately and flayed alive. As he was carried off, the fox turned to him with a smile and said: "You should have spoken well of me to His Majesty rather than ill."

Story

Bill Gates gave a speech at a high school about 11 things they did not and will not learn in school. He talks about how feel-good, politically correct teaching created a generation of kids with no concept of reality and how this concept set them up for failure in the real world.

Rule 1. Life is not fair - get used to it!

Rule 2. The world won't care about your self-esteem. The world will expect you to accomplish something BEFORE you feel good about yourself.

Rule 3. You will not make $60,000 a year right out of high school. You won't be a vice-president with a car phone until you earn both.

Rule 4. If you think your teacher is tough, wait till you get a boss.

Rule 5. Flipping burgers is not beneath your dignity. Your Grandparents had a different word for burger flipping: They called it Opportunity.

Rule 6. If you mess up, it's not your parents' fault, so don't whine about your mistakes, learn from them.

Rule 7. Before you were born, your parents weren't as boring as they are now. They got that way from paying your bills, cleaning your clothes and listening to you talk about how cool you thought you were. So before you save the rain forest from the parasites of your parents generation, try delousing the closet in your own room.

Rule 8. Your school may have done away with winners and losers, but LIFE HAS NOT. In some schools, they have abolished failing grades and they will give you as many times as you want to get the right answer. This doesn't have the slightest resemblance to ANYTHING IN REAL LIFE.

Rule 9. Life is not divided into semesters. You don't get summers off and very few employers are interested in helping you find yourself. Do that on your own time.

Rule 10. Television is NOT real life. In real life people have to actually leave the coffee shop and go to jobs.

Operation Ke Liye Behoshi Ka injection Lagane Se Pehle Doctor Ne Aurat Se Pucha: Aapki Age Kitni Hai?

Lady Patient: 28 Saal.

Doctor Ne Kaha: Aapko Pakka Yakeen Hai Na Ki Aapki Itni Hi Age Hai Kyunki Mujhe Aapki Age Ke Hisaab Se Behoshi Ki Dawa Ki Matra Nirdharit Karni Hai.

Lady Patient: 30 Saal.

Doctor Ne Phir Lady Se Pucha: Aap Dekh Lijiye, Dawai Ki Kam Ya Jyada Quantity Se Patient Ya Operation Ke Beech Mein Hi Hosh Mein Aa Jata Hai Ya Phir Coma Mein Chala Jata Hai.

Lady Patient: 28 Saal.

Doctor Ne Phir Kaha: Dekhiye Shrimati Ji, Baat Is Tarah Hai Ki Agar Aap Apni Age Galat Batayengi Toh Dawai Ki Galat Matra Ka Asar Seedhe-Seedhe Dimaag Pe Padta Hai Aur Vo Damage Bhi Ho Sakti Hai.

Lady Patient Cheekhate Hue Gusse Se Boli: 49 Saal, Aur Ab Bhale Hi

STORY

Once a Crow, holding on to a piece of meat was flying to find a place to sit & eat.

However, an Eagle started chasing it. The crow was anxious and was flying higher and higher, yet the eagle was after the poor crow.

Just then "Garuda" saw the plight and pain in the eyes of the crow. Coming closer to the crow, he asked:

"What's wrong? You seem to be very "disturbed" and in "stress"?".

The crow cried "Look at this eagle!! It is after me to kill me".

Garuda being the bird of wisdom spoke "Oh my friend!! That eagle is not after you to kill you!! It is after that piece of meat that you are holding in your beak. Just drop it and see what will happen".

The crow followed the advice of Garuda and dropped the piece of meat, and there you go, the eagle flew towards the falling meat.

Garuda smiled and said "The Pain is only till you hold on to it. *Just Drop* it".

The crow bowed and said "I dropped this piece of meat, now, I can fly even higher".

'Not at all', the boy replied, 'I knew this cow was his mother-in-law.'

STORY

An engine in a factory failed. The owners tried one expert after another, but none of them could figure how to fix the engine. Then they brought in an old man who had been fixing engines since he was young. He carried a large bag of tools with him, and when he arrived, he immediately went to work. He inspected the engine very carefully, top to bottom. Two of the owners were there, watching this man, hoping he would know what to do. After looking things over, the old man reached into his bag and pulled out a small hammer. He gently tapped something. Instantly, the engine lurched into life. He carefully put his hammer away. The engine was fixed! A week later, the owners received a bill from the old man for Rs.10, 000. "What?!" the owners exclaimed. "He hardly did anything!" So they wrote the old man a note saying, "Please send us an itemized bill." The man sent a bill that read:
Tapping with a hammer Rs. 2/-
Knowing where to tap Rs 9,998/-

A man was driving well above the speed limit when a police car suddenly emerged from behind, sirens blaring. Thinking he'd outpace the cop, the man pushed his accelerator to the floor. His car's speed rose to sixty, then seventy, eighty, and ninety. Finally, the man thought, what the heck, and pulled over, ready to receive a speeding ticket.

The police officer got out, leaned over the man and said: 'Listen, Mister, I have had a really lousy day, and I just want to go home. Give me a good excuse and I'll let you go.'

The man thought for a moment and said: 'Three weeks ago my wife ran off with a police officer. When I saw your car in my mirror, I thought you were that officer and were trying to give her back to me.'

LESSON FROM CHENNAI FLOODS

Life is not about money, it's about helping each other. People had ATM cards, but no ATM. People had mobile phones, but no charge to cry for help. People had houses, but couldn't stay there. People had cars and bikes, but couldn't drive to safer places. These materialistic things failed to help people at the right time, but many kind-hearted people helped.

This made us realise that we are nothing against nature. "We need to help each other and grow together."

Of course, the tagline goes....

“Twenty years”, replied the guide.

“You Indians are a lazy lot”, the tourist said. “In my country, this could have been built in five.”

At Agra he admired the Taj’s beauty and asked how many years it took to build.

“Only ten years”, said the guide.

The tourist reported: “You Indians are slow! We can construct such buildings in two-and-a-half.”

One day Thomas Edison came home and gave a paper to his mother. He told her, "My teacher gave this paper to me and told me to only give it to my mother."

His mother's eyes were tearful as she read the letter out loud to her child: Your son is a genius. This school is too small for him and doesn't have enough good teachers for training him. Please teach him yourself.

After many, many years, after Edison's mother died and he was now one of the greatest inventors of the century, one day he was looking through old family things. Suddenly he saw a folded paper in the corner of a drawer in a desk. He took it and opened it up. On the paper was written: Your son is addled [mentally ill]. We won't let him come to school any more.

Edison cried for hours and then he wrote in his diary: "Thomas Alva Edison was an addled child, who, by a hero mother, became the genius of the century."

Nice story by Dilip Kumar -

“At the peak of my career, I was once travelling by plane. The passenger next to me was elderly, dressed in a simple shirt and pant. He appeared middle class but well educated. Other passengers kept glancing at me. But this gentleman appeared unconcerned. He read his newspaper, looked out of the window, and when tea came, he sipped it quietly. Trying to strike a conversation, I smiled. The man courteously smiled back and said hello. We got talking and I brought the subject to cinema and asked, “Do you watch films?” The man replied, “Oh, very few. I did see one many years ago.” I mentioned that I worked in films myself. The man said, “Oh, that’s nice. What do you do?” I replied, “I am an actor.” The man nodded, “Oh, wonderful.” That was it. When we landed, I held out my hand and said, “It was good to travel with you. By the way, my name is Dilip Kumar.” The man shook my hand and smiled, “Thank you. I am J. R. D. Tata.” I learned, no matter how big you are, there is always someone bigger. Be humble. It costs nothing.”

A person was walking through an elephant camp, and he spotted that the elephants weren't being kept in cages or held by the use of chains.

All that was holding them back from escaping the camp, was a small piece of rope tied to one of their legs.

As the man gazed upon the elephants, he was completely confused as to why the elephants didn't just use their strength to break the rope and escape the camp. They could easily have done so, but instead, they didn't try to at all.

Curious and wanting to know the answer, he asked a trainer nearby why the elephants were just standing there and never tried to escape. The trainer replied;

The only reason that the elephants weren't breaking free and escaping from the camp was that over time they adopted the belief that it just wasn't possible.

Lord Buddha was staying with his disciples in a village and he was thirsty. He asked his disciple to fetch him water from the stream. The disciple went to the stream and to his dismay the water was muddy because of the children stomping around and the women washing clothes. He returned empty handed and told Buddha of his woes.

Lord Buddha smiled and sent another disciple. He returned after a while with a jug full of clear water. The first disciple was amazed and queried Buddha how the second disciple got clear water for which Buddha smiled and said "Patience pays." ## STORY

A 24 year old boy watching out from the train's window shouted...

"Dad, look the trees are going behind!"

Dad smiled and a young couple sitting nearby, looked at the 24 year old's childish behavior with pity, suddenly he again exclaimed...

"Dad, look the clouds are running with us!"

The couple couldn't resist and said to the old man...

"Why don't you take your son to a good doctor?"

The old man smiled and said...

"I did and we are just coming from the hospital, my son was blind from birth, he just got his eyes today."

MORAL: Every single person on the planet has a story. Don't judge people before you truly know them. The truth might surprise you.

➤ Risk

To laugh is to risk appearing the fool.

To weep is to risk appearing sentimental.

To reach out for another is to risk involvement.

To expose feelings is to risk exposing your true self.

To place your ideas, your dreams, before a crowd is to risk their loss.

To love is to risk not being loved in return.

To live is to risk dying.

To hope is to risk despair.

To try is to risk failure.

But risks must be taken, because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing. Those who risk nothing, do nothing, have nothing, and are nothing. They may avoid suffering and sorrow, but they cannot learn, feel, change, grow, love, or live. Chained by their attitudes, they are slaves, they have forfeited their freedom. Only a person who risks is free...

STORY

A lawyer had a wife and 12 children and needed to move, as his rental agreement was coming to an end forth home where he lived, but was having difficulty in finding a new home. When he said he had 12 children, no one would rent a home to him because they knew that the children would destroy the home. He could not say that he had no children, he could not lie, after all, lawyers cannot and do not lie.

So, he had an idea - he sent his wife for a walk to the cemetery with 11 children. He took the remaining one with him to see homes with the real estate agent.

He liked one of the homes and the agent asked, "How many children do you have?"

He answered, "12 children."

The agent asked, "And where are they now?"

The lawyer answered, with a sad look, "11 of them are in the cemetery with their mother."

And that is the way he was able to rent a home for his family without lying.

HAPPINESS

Most meaningful conversation between two intelligent men.

1st Man- I am a man of few words.

2nd Man- (After a Long pause)

.... I am also Married ...

You were born in a first class hospital, I was delivered at home, we both survived.

You went to a private primary school and I went to a public school, we both ended in the same high school.

You woke up from the bed and I woke from the floor, we both had a peaceful night rest.

Your outfits are all expensive, mine are all simple and cheap, we both still cover our nakedness.

You ate fried rice and roasted chicken, I ate local made food but we both still ate to our satisfaction.

You ride on Lexus jeep, Range Rover, G Wagon, Hummer Jeep and I use public transport but we still got to our various destination.

You may be reading this post from your Sony xperia, BB Z10, Q10, Samsung Galaxy 6edge, iPhone6+ and I typed it with my Touch one broken screen, we still see the message.

Lifestyle is not a competition and there are different ways to get a lot of things done, different lanes all leading to the same destination. Just because your neighbour is doing things faster does not mean you are failing.

Happiness doesn't come from having everything, but making the best out of what you have, it's all about how you see yourself.

Happiness is not having what you like.
Happiness is liking what you have and being content...

There was a farmer who grew excellent quality corn.

Every year he won the award for the best grown corn.

One year a newspaper reporter interviewed him and learned something interesting about how he grew it.

The reporter discovered that the farmer shared his seed corn with his neighbors.

“How can you afford to share your best seed corn with your neighbors when they are entering corn in competition with yours each year?” the reporter asked.

“Why sir,” said the farmer, “Didn’t you know? The wind picks up pollen from the ripening corn and swirls it from field to field.

If my neighbours grow inferior corn, cross-pollination will steadily degrade the quality of my corn. If I am to grow good corn, I must help my neighbours grow good corn.”

- Once there was a small time business man in a village who sold butter in the nearby town. A big shop owner in the town was his regular customer. The villager used to deliver every month the shop owner the required butter in 1 Kg blocks and in turn he used to get grocery items like sugar, pulses etc. from the big shop owner. Once the shop owner decided to weigh the butter and to his surprise every block of butter weighed 900 grams only, instead of 1kg!
Next month when the villager came to supply butter, the shop owner abused him for cheating, and told him to leave the shop. To this the villager replied him courteously "Sir, I am a poor villager, and I don't have enough money to even buy the required weights for weighing the butter. So I usually put the 1 kg sugar you give me on one side of the weighing scale and weigh butter on another side!"

STORY

A perfect example for the dilemma we often face in any decision making.

A group of children were playing near two railway tracks, one still in use while the other not.

Only one child played on the unused track, the rest on the operational track.

A train is coming, and you are just beside the track interchange. You can make the train change its course to the unused track and save most of the kids.

However, that would also mean the lone child playing by the unused track would be sacrificed.

Or would you rather let the train go its way?

Let's take a pause to think what kind of decision we could make.....

have you thought enough !!!!

Most people might choose to divert the course of the train, and sacrifice only one child. Save most of the children at the expense of only one child was rational decision most people would make, morally and emotionally.

But, have you ever thought that the child chose to play on the unused track had in fact made the right decision to play at a safe place?

Nevertheless, he had to be sacrificed because of his ignorant friends who chose to play where the danger was.

This kind of dilemma happens around us everyday. In the office, community, in politics and especially in a democratic society, the RIGHT is often sacrificed for the interest of the majority, no matter how foolish or ignorant the majority are, and how far-sighted and knowledgeable the wise are.

The great critic Leo Velski Julian who told the story said he would not try to change the course of the train because he believed that the kids playing on the operational track were aware that the track was still in use, and that they would run away when they hear the train's sirens.

Now, If the train was diverted, that lone child would definitely die because he never expects that a train could come over on the unused track.

While we are all aware that life is full of tough decisions that need to be made, we may not realize that hasty decision may not always be the right one.

And what's popular isn't always Right."

A beggar came to an emperor and the beggar said, "If you are going to give me anything there is a condition."

The emperor said, "What do you mean? What do you mean by your condition?"

The beggar said, "This is my condition. I accept only if you can fill my begging bowl absolutely."

It was a small begging bowl. The King said, "What do you think I am? Am I a beggar? I cannot fill this dirty small begging bowl?"

The beggar said, "It is better to tell you before, because later you can get into trouble. If you think you can fill, fill."

The King called his vizier and told him to fill it with precious stones, with diamonds and rubies, emeralds. "Let this beggar know with whom he is talking!"

But then there was difficulty. The bowl was filled but the king was surprised -- as the stone fell into it, it would disappear. It was filled many times and each time it was again empty.

Now he was in a great rage, but he told the vizier, "Even if my whole kingdom goes, if all my treasuries are emptied, let them be -- but I cannot allow this beggar to defeat me. This is too much.”

And all the treasures, it is said, disappeared. By and by the king became a beggar. It took months. And the beggar was there and the king was there and the whole capital was there and everybody was wondering what was going to happen, what would happen in the end. Everything was simply disappearing.

Finally the king had to fall to the feet of the beggar and he said, “Forgive me, but before you leave just tell me one thing. What is the secret of this begging bowl? All has disappeared in it.”

The beggar started laughing. He said, “It is made of human ego. I have made this begging bowl of a human ego.

Everything disappears in it, nothing ever fulfils it.”

It is a tremendously beautiful story. That's what is life.

3. the Cemetery.

At the Hospital, you will understand that nothing is more beautiful than health

In Prison, you'll see that freedom is the most precious thing.

At the Cemetery you will realize that we are not immortal, must leave a legacy of great deeds. The ground we walk today will be our Roof Tomorrow.

PRAYER

I loved this interpretation of Prayer

What is a prayer? Prayer doesn't just happen when we kneel or put our hands together and focus and expect things from God.

*Thinking positive and wishing good for others is a prayer.

*When you hug a friend. That's a prayer.

*When you cook something to nourish family and friends, that's prayer.

*When we send off our near and dear ones and say, 'drive safely' or 'be safe', that's prayer.

*When you are helping someone in need by giving your time and energy, you are praying.

*When you forgive someone by your heart, that is prayer.

Prayer is a vibration, a feeling, a thought.

Prayer is the voice of love, friendship, genuine relationships.

Prayer is an expression of your silent being.

Keep praying always!

- Pride and Ego come when we feel we have done something Right.
Respect and honor come when Others feel We have done something Right.

- Patience is a great quality. We should learn it from the sun and the moon.
Both patiently wait for their turn.

- SUCCESS and EXCUSES
Don't talk to each other...
If you give EXCUSES forget SUCCESS and to achieve SUCCESS forget EXCUSES.

- Be humble. You may be wrong.
Be curious. You may find the questions.
Be kind. You may be remembered.
Be you. You will be happier.

➤ 'Go not to the Temple'

Go not to the Temple to put flowers upon the feet of God,

First fill your own house with the Fragrance of love and kindness.

Go not to the Temple to light candles before the altar of God,

First remove the darkness of sin, pride and ego from your heart...

Go not to the Temple to bow down your head in prayer,

First learn to bow in humility before your fellowmen.

And apologise to those you have wronged.

Go not to the Temple to pray on bended knees,

First bend down to lift someone who is down-trodden and strengthen the young ones.

Not crush them.

Go not to the Temple to ask for forgiveness for your sins,

First forgive from your heart those who have hurt you!

➤ A person asked a question to his Guru,
"My workers are not true to me. My children, my wife and the entire world is very selfish. No body is correct."
Guru smiled and told a story. In one small village there was a room with 1000 mirrors. One small girl used to go inside and play. Seeing thousands of children around her she was joyful. She would clap her hands and all the 1000 children would clap back at her. She considered this place as the world's happiest n beautiful place and would visit often. This same place was once visited by a sad and depressed person. He saw around him thousands of angry men staring at him . He got scared and raised his hands to hit them and in return 1000 hands lifted to hit him back. He thought... this is the worst place in the world and left that place. This world is also a room with 1000 mirrors around you. What we let out of us is what the universe will give back to us!! This world is a heaven. Or Hell.. It's up to us what we make out of it..." said the Guru.

*YOU ARE IMPORTANT***

A cobbler lived in a large village and he was the only cobbler in town, so he was responsible for repairing the boots of everybody else. However, he didn't have time to repair his own boots.

This wasn't a problem at first, but over time, his boots began to deteriorate and fall apart.

While he worked feverishly on the boots of everyone else, his feet got blisters and he started to limp.

His customers started to worry about him, but he reassured them that everything was ok.

However, after a few years, the cobbler's feet were so injured that he could no longer work and no-one's boots got repaired.

As a consequence, soon the entire town started to limp in pain, all because the cobbler never took the time to repair his own boots.

This simple principle is so often disregarded.

➤ FAMILY, PLACE OF FORGIVENESS ...

There is no perfect family. We do not have perfect parents, we are not perfect, we do not marry a perfect person or have perfect children. We have complaints from each other. We disappoint each other. So there is no healthy marriage or healthy family without the exercise of forgiveness.

Forgiveness is vital to our emotional health and spiritual survival. Without forgiveness the family becomes an arena of conflict and a stronghold of hurt.

Without forgiveness, the family becomes ill. Forgiveness is the a sepsis of the soul, the cleansing of the mind and the liberation of the heart.

Whoever does not forgive does not have peace in the soul nor communion with God. Hurt is poison that intoxicates and kills. Keeping heartache in the heart is a self-destructive gesture. It's autophagy. Those who do not forgive are physically, emotionally and spiritually ill. That is why the family must be a place of life, not of death;

Territory of cure and not of illness;

Stage of forgiveness and not guilt.

Forgiveness brings joy where sorrow has produced sadness;

Healing, where sorrow has caused disease.

An engineer in a car manufacturing company designs a world class car. The owner is impressed with the outcome and praised him a lot.

While trying to bring out the car from the manufacturing area to the showroom, they realised that the car is few inches taller than the entrance.

The engineer felt bad that he didn't notice this one before creating the car. The owner was amazed on how to take it outside of the manufacturing area.

The painter said that they can bring out the car and there will be a few scratches on top of the car which could be touched up later on.

The engineer said that they can break the entrance, take the car out, and later re-do it.

The owner was not convinced with any ideas felt like it is a bad sign to break or scratch

A Watchman was observing all the drama & slowly approached the owner. He wanted to give an idea if they had no problem.

They wondered what this guy would tell them that the experts could not give.

The watchman said "The car is only a few inches taller than the entrance so, simply release the air in the tyre, the height of the car will sink and can be easily taken out"...

Everyone clapped!!!

When Albert Einstein was making the rounds of the speaker's circuit, he usually found himself eagerly longing to get back to his laboratory work. One night as they were driving to yet another rubber-chicken dinner, Einstein mentioned to his chauffeur (a man who somewhat resembled Einstein in looks & manner) that he was tired of speechmaking.

"I have an idea, boss," his chauffeur said. "I've heard you give this speech so many times. I'll bet I could give it for you." Einstein laughed loudly and said, "Why not? Let's do it!"

When they arrived at the dinner, Einstein donned the chauffeur's cap and jacket and sat in the back of the room. The chauffeur gave a beautiful rendition of Einstein's speech and even answered a few questions expertly.

Then a supremely pompous professor asked an extremely esoteric question about anti-matter formation, digressing here and there to let everyone in the audience know that he was nobody's fool. Without missing a beat, the chauffeur fixed the professor with a steely stare and said, "Sir, the answer to that question is so simple that I will let my chauffeur, who is sitting in the back, answer it for me."

STORY

A Man opened his Wife's closet of clothes . It was lined with Sarees that she had worn just once , may be twice . There were others that had been kept away unused , waiting for a special occasion .

He opened her Jewellery Box . It was neatly packed with necklaces and earrings that had not been worn for so long that he had even forgotten that she had them . There were rings and bracelets that she had cherished with care . There were old bangles that his Mother had given to her . They too , lay packed in silken pouches all for a Special Occasion .

He moved to the crockery closet in their dining room . Rows of crystal glasses and expensive chinaware , stared at him sadly . The silver cutlery set that he had bought her still lay in its suede jacket , waiting for a special occasion . There were so many Souvenirs around the House that stared gloomily at him .

He looked at his beloved Wife's Picture hanging on the wall , garlanded with freshly strung Jasmine flowers .

He had performed her last rites just yesterday . She had passed away , after a prolonged and painful illness .

All the things that she had bought , with so much fervor , but never got to use , hit him like arrows . He was full of regret .

Why had she not worn those lovely Sarees ?

Why had she spent her life scrimping and scraping for the tomorrow that she never woke up to ?

Why had they not dined in their silver and crystal ?

A business man gets stranded in a lonely highway in the US. The tyres of his car get stuck badly in a mud pool. He looks around for help and finally finds an old farmer. This businessman goes to him asking for help to get his car out of the mud. Farmer gauges the situation, and agrees to help him and says, let us take the help of Warwick. Warwick was an old bull around, but the helpless business man agrees. The farmer ties the bull to the car and start shouting loudly, 'FRED, PULL!.. JACK, PULL!.. JOHN, PULL... WARWICK, PULL'. As the farmer keeps shouting these words, the bull Warwick gets the car out of the pool of mud. The Businessman is relieved but has a doubt in his mind. He thanks the farmer and asks him, 'You said the bull's name was Warwick, and he was alone, then who were these Fred, Jack & John?' Farmer coolly answered, "See, Warwick is old and is also blind. Someone asked Bill Gates, Is there any person richer than you? He said, yes, only one. Many years ago, I had been dismissed and I had gone to New York airport. I read titles of newspapers there. I liked one of them and I want to buy it. But I didn't have change (coin). I abandoned, suddenly, a black boy called me and told, "This newspaper for you." I said, but I don't have change. He said, "No problem, I give you free". After 3 months, I went there. Coincidentally, that story happened again and that same boy gave another free newspaper again. I said, I can't accept. But he said, "I give you from my profit." After 19 years, I had been rich and I decided to find that boy. I found him after one and half months searching. I asked him, do you know me? He said, "Yes, you're famous Bill Gates." I said, you gave me free newspaper in 2 times many years ago. Now, I want to compensate it. I am going to give you everything that you want. Black young man replied, "You can't compensate it!" I said, why? He said, "Because I gave you when I was poor. You want to give me when you are rich. So, how do you compensate?" Bill Gates said, I think that black young man is richer than me. You don't have to be rich or wait to be rich to give.

He would miss the money, but the time was right and he was ready to hang up his hammer. His boss was disappointed as the carpenter had been a loyal and diligent worker for many years, so he was sad to see him go. He asked for one last favour, requesting that the carpenter could build one last house before retiring. The carpenter agreed, but it was soon clear that his heart wasn't in it. He took shortcuts, used inferior materials and put in a half-hearted effort. In the end, the final product was well short of his usual standards, a disappointing way to end his career. When the job was finished, the employer taking a look around, handed the keys to the carpenter and said, "This is your The carpenter was shocked and embarrassed. If only he had known, he would have made sure that everything was perfect. If he had known the consequences, he would have demanded excellence from himself. We're not that different. We do our business or profession, working as we see fit. Some work with passion, some without caring. Some with excellence, some with low standards. Some with diligence, some without effort. Show perseverance & put equal persistence in all our work. We are all in the process of building our own lives. Think that each & every action that we take represents each block that we are building. And we have to reside in those builded blocks . If you're not happy with what you see, perhaps it's a direct consequence of what you've been building over the years. Choose your blocks & Build wisely.

This story is when the five Pandavas used to study in the ashram of Guru Dronacharya. One day Guru Dronacharya taught them to always tell the truth and never tell a lie and, said to remember this throughout their life. He also told them to memorize a certain lesson. The next day the Guru made them stand and turn by turn, memorizing the lesson. All the students memorized the lesson. When it was Yudhister's turn he said, "Guru, I could not learn the lesson". The Guru punished Yudhister and taught the others another lesson. For twenty days Yudhister said the same thing. On the twenty-first day, the Guru said angrily, "Oh Yudhister, you are a fool. Could you not learn the small lesson till now". Yudhister said, "Guru, when you taught to always tell the truth and never tell a lie, I always tell the truth. But, I could not make my words fully true till now. How can I say that I have learnt lesson? Only repeating the line is not learning the lesson, but to follow it, is true study". "True education is what which liberates man" . To follow and implement the learnings in the true sense is the real education. Knowledge is Power but this power is unutilised unless you implement your knowledge in your own life. Let's start following the good lessons learnt in life for a distinguish living.

REAL RICHNESS

Once, a very poor man came to Buddha. He asked: "Why am I so poor?"*

Buddha answered:

"You are poor because you don't practice generosity. You don't practice charity."*

"But how can I practice charity if I don't have anything to give?"*

"You have five treasures that you can share with others."*

"First, you have your face. You can share your smiles with others.. It's free.. And awesome.. And has an amazing impact on others.."*

"Second, you have your eyes. You can look at others with eyes full of love and care.. Genuinely you can impact millions.. Make them feel so good.."*

"Third, you have your mouth. With this mouth you can say nice things to others.. Talk good.. Make them feel valued.. Spread joy and positivity.."*

"Then, you have a heart. With your loving heart you can wish happiness to others.. Make others feel a bundle of emotions.. Touch their lives.."*

"Last treasure that you possess is your body.. With this body you can do many good things to others.. Help the people who need.."

- Can u judge who is the better person out of these 3 ?

Mr A - He had friendship with bad politicians, consults astrologers, two wives, chain smoker, drinks eight to 10 times a day.

Mr B - He was kicked out of office twice, sleeps till noon, used opium in college & drinks whiskey every evening.

Mr C - He is a decorated war hero, a vegetarian, doesn't smoke, doesn't drink and never cheated on his wife and was a painter

You would say Mr.C

Right?

But..

Mr. A was Franklin Roosevelt! ( 32nd President of the USA)

Mr. B was Winston Churchill!! (Former British Prime Minister)

Mr C Was ADOLF HITLER!!!

Strange but true.

Its very complex to judge people, many times we misjudge people.

- Never stop doing your best just because someone doesn't give you the credit.

STORY

One day a farmer's donkey fell down into a well. The animal cried piteously for hours as the farmer tried to figure out what to do.

Finally, he decided the animal was old, and the well needed to be covered up anyway; it just wasn't worth it to retrieve the donkey.

He invited all his neighbors to come over and help him. They all grabbed a shovel and began to shovel dirt into the well. At first, the donkey realized what was happening and cried horribly. Then, to everyone's amazement he quieted down.

A few shovel loads later, the farmer finally looked down the well. He was astonished at what he saw. With each shovel of dirt that hit his back, the donkey was doing something amazing. He would shake it off and take a step up.

As the farmer's neighbors continued to shovel dirt on top of the animal, he would shake it off and take a step up. Pretty soon, everyone was amazed as the donkey stepped up over the edge of the well and happily trotted off!

MORAL : Life is going to shovel dirt on you, all kinds of dirt. The trick to getting out of the well is to shake it off and take a step up. Each of our troubles is a steppingstone. We can get out of the deepest wells just by not stopping, never giving up! Shake it off and take a step up.

Little Johnny is a Millionaire

The teacher said his classroom:

“Take a pencil and paper and write an essay with the title If I Were a Millionaire “

Everyone, except for Little Johnny, began to write.

“What’s the matter,” the teacher asked.

“Why don’t you write?”

“I’m waiting for my secretary,” he replied.

Story

There was a millionaire who was bothered by severe eye pain. He consulted so many physicians and was getting his treatment done. But the ache persisted with great vigour than before. At last a monk who has supposed to be an expert in treating such patients was called for by the millionaire. The monk said that for sometime he should concentrate only on green colours and not to fall his eyes on any other colours. The millionaire got together a group of painters and purchased barrels of green color and directed that every object his eye was likely to fall to be painted in green colour just as the monk had directed. When the monk came to visit him after few days, the millionaire's servants ran with buckets of green paints and poured on him since he was in red dress, lest their master not see any other colour and his eye ache would come back. Hearing this monk laughed said "If only you had purchased a pair of green spectacles, worth just a few rupees, you could have saved these walls and trees and pots and all other articles and also could have saved a large share of his fortune." U cannot paint the world green. "Let us change our vision and the world will appear accordingly. It is foolish to shape the world, let us shape ourselves first."

Story

‘Once upon a time a thief running away from guards noted a beggar sleeping in a dark alley. He secretly put the small but priceless piece of jewellery he had just stolen into the pocket of the beggar. He then run away, intending to come back and steal from the beggar after he had outrun the guards. Overnight, the thief was accidentally killed during a struggle with the guards. The beggar was now a rich man. In his pocket he had enough wealth to live comfortably for life, but he never once checked inside, so he never knew. He lived the rest of his life as a beggar’.
